

cation with the fortresses, accept them with reserve. The tension over the situation at the theater of war is manifestly increasing. The General Staff is becoming more reticent, and the public is convinced that an important battle which may decide the fate of the campaign is impending. The outposts engagements between the main armies of Gens. Kourapatkin and Kuroki have suddenly ceased. Such a lull frequently occurs after two armies have been for some time in touch, and just before they are ready to strike.

Kuroki has not yet moved, according to the latest advices, but is drawing in his skirmishers, as if preparing to do so. Developments on the lower part of the Liao Tung Peninsula may determine when and where the two armies will come in collision. Kourapatkin has elaborately fortified his position at Liao Yang, in anticipation of a possible forward movement on the part of Kuroki and the army landed at Taku-shan. But Kuroki's failure to assume the aggressive and the approach of the rainy season, which would stop operations, as well as the pressure to impede Gen. Oku's army, may have been determining factors in dispatching a force southward, the strength of which is as much a mystery as ever.

The Japanese apparently are not averse to this advance, having already withdrawn before it to below Wafangtien. If Kuroki should now push in behind this force across the head of the Liao Tung Peninsula, Kourapatkin, in the opinion of military experts, with nothing to fear on his flank, is certain to come down from the north, and a decisive battle might occur in the neighborhood of Haicheng.

The Admiralty is convinced that either the battleship Yashio or the battleship Shikishima has been lost off Taku-shan. This belief is based on Chinese reports which have heretofore proved reliable.

The Emperor, in discussing the war situation at Taku-shan-Solo with a prominent diplomatist, although expressing complete confidence in the ultimate outcome of the war, displayed considerable concern over the fate of Port Arthur, against which he said he believed the enemy was directing his principal energies. His Majesty told the visitor that the report that there was not enough coal at Port Arthur for the squadron has no vestige of foundation, and the Emperor also said that from the reports he had received he was satisfied the Japanese had already lost three battleships.

KILLING OF ETZEL.

CHINESE ADMIT MISTAKE.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

NEWCHWANG, June 8, 7 a.m.—[By Asiatic Cable.] The funeral of Lewis Etzel, correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph, will take place this afternoon. Etzel was killed while on a junk between Shantung and Erdo-ko, as some Chinese soldiers on another vessel, who were searching for pirates. The junk at the time was ten miles out at sea. Immediately after realizing the mistake they had made, the soldiers sailed away and have not been seen since. United States Consul-General Miller held an inquest at Shantung yesterday, at which the Chinese Gen. Li acknowledged that Etzel was killed by his soldiers.

ERNST BRINDE of the London Daily Mail, who was along with Etzel when he was shot, testified that their junk was unchallenged by the soldiers, and was fired upon in spite of the fact that the two foreigners were plainly visible at a distance of less than 100 yards. At least 150 shots were fired at the correspondents' junk, which did not reply. Consul-General Miller will forward his report to United States Minister Consul, showing gross carelessness upon the part of the soldiers, to say the least.

While Brindle is uncommunicative regarding the plans which took himself and Etzel on the sea voyage, the Associated Press correspondent has learned that they were attempting to reach Port Arthur. The Russian authorities are doing all in their power to assist the American officials in the matter. Gen. Kondratovich placed a steam launch with twenty-five soldiers under the orders of Consul-General Miller and otherwise rendered great aid in recovering the body of Etzel. Consul-General Miller has replied to Gen. Kondratovich, thanking him heartily for his kindness, on behalf of the United States government.

SISTER WANTS THE BODY.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.) DENVER (Colo.) June 8.—Miss Anna E. Etzel, sister of Lewis Etzel, has appealed to the President for his permission to remove the shipping of the body from Newchuan to this city. A reply to her message was received from the President's secretary today, saying that the matter had been referred to the Department of State.

OFFICIAL TIDINGS AWAITED.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.)

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Secretary Hay today received a telegram from Miss Anna Etzel, in Denver, Colo., asking the Secretary to endeavor to have his body recovered and returned to the United States for burial. The State Department has not heard so far, officially, of the killing of Etzel, a fact probably accounted for by the reported departure from Newchuan of Consul-General Miller for the scene of the killing. Therefore it has not been possible to make any representations to the subject to the Chinese government.

OFFICIAL IMPEACHED.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.) SEOUL (Korea) June 7, 6 p.m.—[Delayed in transmission.] Yun Yung Sun, chamberlain of the Korean court, whose sympathies are with Russia, has been impeached, and his second denunciation is expected to-day.

For the past week, the influence of Yun Yung Sun has been tottering, and his unscrupulous course of action resulted in his losing the friendship of the Japanese, who were responsible for his getting into power. His downfall was due to the opposition of Prince Yi Chi Yong, a former Minister, and now a sympathizer with Japan.

The best element of the court party is at present under the leadership of Prince Yi Chi Yong, who is also a nephew of the Emperor, and this fact should lead to the strengthening of Japan's position at the palace.

THE VERY LATEST. WAR NEWS AFTER MIDNIGHT.

CHEFOO, June 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Concerted attacks of varying strength from land and sea have been made by the Japanese on the outer defenses of Port Arthur for the past two days, and though none of them is known to have been pushed to a conclusion, they are progressively persistent. Field artillery was used today in bombarding the Russian breastworks between Thung-kia-khou and the approaches to Wedge Head, and simultaneously several Japanese gunboats fired on minor Russian positions along the shore of Taku-shan Bay. At no time did the Japanese attack in force, their various periods of fire apparently being designed mainly to draw a reply from the enemy, and most of the movements being in the nature of reconnaissances. The attacks were effective in more than one instance, however, so far as exposing the weakness of some of the outer Russian positions.

The Japanese apparently are not averse to this advance, having already withdrawn before it to below Wafangtien. If Kuroki should now push in behind this force across the head of the Liao Tung Peninsula, Kourapatkin, in the opinion of military experts, with nothing to fear on his flank, is certain to come down from the north, and a decisive battle might occur in the neighborhood of Haicheng.

The Admiralty is convinced that either the battleship Yashio or the battleship Shikishima has been lost off Taku-shan. This belief is based on Chinese reports which have heretofore proved reliable.

The Emperor, in discussing the war situation at Taku-shan-Solo with a prominent diplomatist, although expressing complete confidence in the ultimate outcome of the war, displayed considerable concern over the fate of Port Arthur, against which he said he believed the enemy was directing his principal energies. His Majesty told the visitor that the report that there was not enough coal at Port Arthur for the squadron has no vestige of foundation, and the Emperor also said that from the reports he had received he was satisfied the Japanese had already lost three battleships.

Others were struck once or twice each, but all scouting vessels retired in good order. Apparently, the information gleaned in the course of that reconnaissance was of importance to the harbor, the officer in command of the little squadron being instructed to brave extreme peril, if necessary, to obtain the information this is inclined to hold that if a blockaded port communicates by wire telegraph with a shore station in neutral territory, it does not necessarily constitute a breach of neutrality any more than communication over an unsevered cable, the enemy having the remedy in one case of cutting the cable and in the other of stationing a vessel having wireless apparatus between the sending and the receiving stations, thus interfering with communications.

The crews of the Baltic fleet have been called out. Eight thousand men and officers of the naval reserves were taken from six provinces. The remainder of the naval reserves were not called out. Grand Duke Alexei, the admiral, inspected the ships at Port Arthur; and the Emperor will visit them shortly. The portion of the First Army Corps stationed in the St. Petersburg district and recently called to the colors, is leaving Saturday for Novgorod, where the mobilization of the corps will occur. The corps is scheduled to leave for the front June 25.

TOGO INVITES SHOOTING.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

LONDON, June 9.—The sudden interruption of the cable between Korea and Japan is considered significant of the imminence of important operations at Port Arthur. The Japanese having taken precautions, as usual, to cut the means of communications with the outside world, and thus enable their naval and military forces to work with absolute secrecy.

No attention is paid in London to rumors that the storming of the fortress has already begun, because it is known that at the battle of Kinchow, Gen. Oku had exhausted his ammunition, and an insufficient period has elapsed during which the stores of ammunition could be renewed and stored and brought to position. It is considered likely that Admiral Togo is not adverse to Port Arthur wasting its ammunition in constant encounters with the gunboats. This may explain the rumored bombardments, while the firing on the land sides may be due to preliminary operations, having for their purpose the driving in of the Russian forces.

RUSSIANS FLEE SERVICE.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.) VIENNA, June 8.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Nearly six hundred Russian reservists and regular soldiers have crossed the Austrian frontier within a week. Some have already passed through Vienna on their way to the United States and Argentina. Among the fugitives, many, though not all of them, were well-discreet, but officers, a colonel and a captain. These officers are reported to have worn the uniform as far as the frontier, but to have discarded it on reaching Austrian

LEAVING PORT ARTHUR.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.) CHEFOO, June 9, 8:30 a.m.—The Chinese, both merchants and coolies, are leaving Port Arthur with the permission of the Russian authorities. Fifty junks which left Port Arthur yesterday with Chinese passengers are now arriving here. The reports of the latest arrivals vary in minor details, but agree in the general statement that a battle has been raging for four days within ten miles of Port Arthur. All the Russian sailors have it said, left Port Arthur for the front and only three large ships and a number of small ships remain in the harbor.

The Chinese are unable to explain what has become of the other large ships. They further report that all the forts at Port Arthur have been more or less damaged by recent bombardments, and that a number of mines, recently laid in the entrance of the harbor, were exploded during a thunderstorm.

These, he adds, are actual, and not paper numbers. The organization of the army is perfect. The soldiers are excellent marksmen and the artillery is splendid. Continuing, Maj.-Gen. Mackel says:

"What an abundance of bright minds in the officers' corps. The number is more thinly scattered with the Russians. Only last year I instructed six Japanese officers. Their knowledge astonished me, and their teaching in the art of war were once upon. When the war broke out, Field Marshal Yamagata wrote me that the struggle was about to begin. STAKELBERG'S REVERSE.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.) LONDON, June 9.—The Shanghai correspondent of the Morning Post telegraphs, under date of June 8: "Gen. Stakelberg's Russian brigade marching in the direction of Port Arthur suffered a reverse Saturday, near Wafangtien, and retired to Tashishiao."

The Japanese, however, were in the majority, and latterly the troops of the Czar were not visible. Work is still going on in the concession, but labor is growing scarce, as the $3 a day offered by the Japanese for laborers to assist the army has attracted many of the Koreans formerly employed in the mines.

THAT LIAO YANG MUNCHAUSEN.
(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

LONDON, June 8.—A dispatch to Reuter's Telegraph Company from St. Petersburg, transmits the following from Liao Yang:

"The question of wireless communication with Port Arthur promises to raise an interesting international question. There is no evidence that the Russian government has received wireless messages, although it is suggested that Rear-Admiral Wittsoet's report to Admiral Alexieff may have come by this medium. Some of the authorities who have been examining this are inclined to hold that if a blockaded port communicates by wireless telegraph with a shore station in neutral territory, it does not necessarily constitute a breach of neutrality any more than communication over an unsevered cable, the enemy having the remedy in one case of cutting the cable and in the other of stationing a vessel having wireless apparatus between the sending and the receiving stations, thus interfering with communications."

The neighboring mountains are deserted, and the recently-constructed entrenchments are empty. Japanese mounted scouts are no longer seen, and the Russian patrol has failed to locate them. As far as Nafanpo, the railway is only slightly damaged, and can be repaired in a few hours. Settlement With the Turks.
To Command Oregon.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.
WASHINGTON, June 8.—American
marines have landed in Africa. Adm. iral Chadwick this afternoon called the Navy Department from Tangier
as follows: "I have placed a guard at the Belgian Legation, having been asked to do so by our Consul-General here."

The Navy Department received a telegram from Rear Admiral Chadwick at Tangier to the effect that he was informed that Perdicaris and his stepson, Varley, are in need of medical assistance, and that the Consul-general has sent to Fraissouli to inquire whether a surgeon will be given safe conduct. The admiral says that two so one will be sent. Fraissouli's reply is expected June 9.

SULTAN'S LETTER.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.
TANGIER (Morocco). June 8.—The Sultan's letter in reply to the diplomatic representations made in regard to the kidnapping of M. Perdicaris and his stepson, Varley, arrived here this afternoon.

It is said by a person in the Sultan's confidence that the Sultan gave his orders to grant all of the conditions
demanded by Fraissouli, that bandit
leader, in order to execute the release of the captives.

The Sultan, in his letter, appoints
Saidi El Barada, Governor of Tangier, which step was included an only demand.

Barada was a member of the Council of Mohammed El Torres, the representative of the Sultan here, and formerly was Governor of Massagan.

The authorities here assert that the Sultan made representations to the British Ambassador on the home of an English man here, during which they obtained
several rifles, was only a common robbery, and had no political significance.

ENGLAND PREFERENCES DIPLOMACY.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.
WASHINGTON, June 8.—The President and Sir Mortimer Durand, the British Ambassador, had a brief conference today. Primarily the Ambassador called on the President to pay his respects on the eve of his departure. London, where the British embassy will be located this summer. The Ambassador said he did not discuss the Perdicaris abduction case with the President. He suggested that diplomacy rather than force usually is used in the British Foreign Office
in the settlement of such cases.

Former Secretary of State John W.
Foster called at the State Department today and had a long interview with Secretary Hay respecting the claim of the American Missionaries against the Turkish government on account of the destruction of their property and hardships suffered by them during the last two years.

Secretary Foster said that the State Department will bring some pressure to bear upon the Porte
in regard to the payment of these claims.

The present time was believed to be particularly favorable for securing a settlement. Secretary Hay promised to give the matter immediate attention.

BANDIT DEMANDS GRANTED.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M.
TANGIER (Morocco). June 8.—Dragusive. A letter from the Sultan was read in the mosque today,
appointing a new Governor for Tangier. Troops now in the district over which Brigadier Chieh Fraissouli demands
all sway, are ordered to be withdrawn,
and the control of the Sultan will be directed to return to Fez.

Both these decisions of the Sultan
are in compliance with Fraissouli's demands as conditions for the release of the American Bluejackets, M. Perdicaris and his stepson, Cromwell Varley. Perdicaris is reported to be better, but his release may be delayed.
The Moorish authorities have taken steps to secure the release of the captives
into the house of a British subject yesterday. The people of Alcazar are in a state of panic, as tribesmen threaten to enter and loot the town.

PORT RUMOR A JEST.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.
WASHINGTON, June 8.—The rumor
which is agitating certain newspaper and government officials here, that the United States government intends to ultimately assassinate itself of a coaling station on the Moroccan coast as an incident to the settlement of the Perdicaris affair, is regarded officially here as a jest.

The State Department has received undiplomatic assurances through Mr.
Gummee, who has it from the British Consul at Fez that the Sultan of Morocco
will accede to all of Fraissouli's demands. The British government will guarantee the execution of the Sultan's promises, however, is the sticking point, and this probably can be settled after all, on the acceptance of this obligation by Great Britain.

France or some other country, not so strongly bound as the United States
by its traditions not to entangle itself
in the internal affairs of other countries, is the most likely to have the Sultan set at liberty.

NO IMMEDIATE RELEASE.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.
LONDON, June 8.—The correspondent of the Times at Tangier says the Sultan has not yet complied with all the demands. Those unmet will necessitate considerable further negotiations. No date is given for the next that the captives will be released speedily.

Department today from Port Au

morrow, the day before the first session of the convention, June 21. The word is that Speaker Cannon is almost certain to chairman of the subcommittee that has charge of the Coliseum arrangements for the convention. "From what I

QUESTION OF POLYGAMY.

DISTURBS UTAH DEMOCRATS.

SALT LAKE, June 8.—The question of polygamy was raised yesterday when a vote was taken on it by the national convention, which meets here tomorrow to select six delegates to the national convention. A proposition, it is said, will be made on the floor to give the delegates a chance to oppose a proposition plank in the national platform providing for a uniform marriage and divorce law for every State and Territory of the Union.

The proposition has been charged out, one faction claiming that the Utah delegation should be silent on that point, as opposition by them would be entirely misleading. On the other hand, it is claimed, the Utah delegates will take action in opposing the admission of such a plank, giving the impression of defending polygamy
and polygamous practices.

A strong fight is being made to keep the subject
from coming up at all, but prospects are not so bright as to warrant, at least,
the delegation selecting probably will go to St. Louis uninterested.

HITT TO DRAW OUT.

WILL STAND FOR FAIRBANKS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, June 8.—[Exclusive Di-patch.] Coming immediately after the news yesterday that Senator Fairbanks of Indiana is really a candidate for the Vice-Presidential nomination at the Chicago convention, the visit of Representative Eli of Illinois to the White House and his long conference here with the President, was as being specially significant. It has been generally agreed, since Speaker
Cannon vociferously announced that
he would be nominated for Vice-President, that the contest would be
between Fairbanks and Hitt, with the
chances almost certain that Fairbanks
would receive the nomination if he
would receive the nomination if he
would take it.

Now that the opposition to Gov.
Beckham has decided to put up Judge
Frank Peck for temporary chairman,
Young, in his address, highly arraigned Gov. Beckham's administration
and denounced the Governor's
policy as being speciously significant.
The opposition played a strong card
in announcing that Johnson, who is from Gov. Beckham's home country, was their candidate for temporary chairman. No sooner had this been given out than a number of Beckham supporters called on Johnson and after a conference with him
left him. The opposition's plan was to keep him from being nominated as being speciously significant. It has been generally agreed, since Speaker
Cannon vociferously announced that
he would be nominated for Vice-President, that the contest would be
between Fairbanks and Hitt, with the
chances almost certain that Fairbanks
would receive the nomination if he
would take it.

Chairman Young appealed to the Eryan element by warning them that the most surprising thing that could happen would be to see the control of the infringement the principals advocated by Fryland would be cast aside. At the close of his speech Chairman Young called for nominations for temporary chairman.

Later State Chairman Young was asked if the opposition to Gov.
Beckham had decided to put up Judge
Frank Peck for temporary chairman.
Young, in his address, highly ar-
raigned Gov. Beckham's administration
and denounced the Governor's
policy as being speciously significant.

"Molly Boys" Are Entertained.

Under the auspices of the ladies of the Fellowship Society, the boys of the Detention Home have organized a club known as the "Molly Boys," which meets each Wednesday evening. Last night the boys were entertained by a talk from Prof. Filien, the physical culture advocate, who gave them a drill and explained the need for systematic muscular development. Well-known speakers will give talks before the boys each Wednesday evening.

Camino Real.

At a meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday to set on foot the organization of a Los Angeles section of the State Camino Real Association, those present organized themselves into a committee of the whole and authorized the calling of a mass meeting for 3:30 p.m., June 16, at the Chamber of Commerce, to form a permanent organization. The meeting was presided over and was deteriorated to formulate the call. A big gathering is hoped for at next week's meeting as the masters are to act upon one of the greatest improvements to the Camino Real project in this vicinity.

Struck by a Car.

Mrs. E. H. Freedland, an elderly woman, whose home is in Pomona, was seriously injured at First and Spring streets yesterday while attempting to cross the road on the deposit line of the Los Angeles Railway Company. Just as she started to step on the car, it suddenly started, and she was thrown violently to the street, the rear step of the car hitting and knocking her clear of the track. She sustained a dislocation of the left hip and a fracture of the left wrist. She was removed to the Receiving Hospital, where her injuries were dressed, and she was taken to the Sisters' Hospital.

Age Men Disappear.

Relatives of William Payne are worried about his disappearance on Tuesday night from the home of E. Jones, No. 2897 San Marino. A search was carried on all day yesterday, but the missing man was not located. Authorities in the neighborhood were asked to keep a lookout for him. Mr. Payne is 56 years of age, very much bent, wears a mustache and goatee, and is a constant smoker of cigarette material. He wore a black coat of fine material and a slouch hat when last seen. He came to Los Angeles from New York about a month ago, to make his home with relatives, as he had recently lost his wife and his home. He has been very despondent, and it is feared some personal ill has befallen him. The old man was traced to the vicinity of Hollywood, but beyond that the searchers have discontinued their efforts.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

An attempt on the part of union labor agitators to blackmail heads of city departments was yesterday exposed by Councilmen.

A racial war between Chinese and Greek vegetable peddlers has netted the city several thousand dollars in license revenues.

Complaint was yesterday made to the Health Office that garbage collectors were carrying off the cans along with the garbage.

W. W. Jenkins has again been making his influence felt in the Castro region, and having forcibly elected himself a school trustee, he has now to make good.

There is another big contest over the water in the San Antonio Cafon, and Judge Allen will be kept busy with it or probably a week. It is the Pomona irrigationists on the one hand, and the Ontario water company with some irrigation interests, on the other.

Miss Anna Mansfield gave her testimony yesterday in the suit wherein she and her brothers and sisters are trying to break their mother's will. The estate is proving to be much larger than was at first stated.

AT THE CITY HALL:
ONE MORE UNION PLOT FAILS.

DEPARTMENT HEADS ARE FREED FROM BONDAGE.

All Requisitions for City Printing Must in the Future go to the Lowest Bidder—Boycott Tactics Failed to Eliminate Competition—Agitators in Disgrace.

The greed of union printers seeking to obtain by intimidation and coercion what they failed to get by honest competition has just received a stinging rebuke at the hands of the City Council.

Not content with getting a share of department printing, the union establishments have been of late threatening with political annihilation the Council Committee clerk and the heads of municipal departments because they did not get it all.

Anonymous communications, threatening messages over the telephone, and personal denunciations formed a part of this campaign.

The situation quickly became so unbearable that the whole matter was referred to the Council. That body has just given an order that estimates must be given on all department printing, and that the work shall be given to the lowest bidder.

This puts the city, in regard to printing, in the position of the proprietor of an open shop, where a man will be employed as long as he does his work faithfully and well, regardless of outside affiliations.

Now that the change has been effected, the wonder is that the department heads so long permitted themselves to be swayed by the union agitators.

The labor agitators have slunk away to their noisome dens and the City Hall atmosphere has been freed by the disappearance.

Ward Goodwin, one of the Council Committees, through whose hands all requisitions for printing must pass, was singled out as an object of direct attack by the typographical union and their employees.

When the head of a department printing done, he sends a requisition to City Clerk Goodwin. Goodwin telephones to different printing firms, inquiring the cost of the work. Here is where the unionists thought to get in their work of erosion. They objected to Goodwin's getting estimates from other than union shops.

Their objection was couched in the form of anonymous communications, threatening to get him fired if he persisted in "such nefarious practice." Telephone messages were later resorted to, and finally threats were made.

Under the rules which were in vogue until yesterday, the head of a department named in a requisition was to be the sole authority to let the work. This rule was nothing but the lowest estimate received from outside parties, and if he would accept the work at the lowest figure he got the job.

Here was another chance for the union agitators. They served notice on the heads of all departments that they must not ask to have work done by non-union firms. Political annihilation was to be the price of disobedience.

Most of the heads of departments were willing to divide their work between the union and non-union shops, but this was not enough; the union howlers must have it all. Finally, in self-defense, the department heads appealed to the Council for protection.

The whole matter was taken up two days ago at an executive session of the Council and the upshot of it all was that the rule was passed that no department head should name a preferred firm when asking for supplies. Now the requisition is sent to the committee clerk and he gets sealed bids. The lowest bidder gets the work.

"It has been a fight over getting printing done over any other kind of supplies furnished," said Committee Clerk Goodwin yesterday afternoon.

"Union printing establishments appear to think I am not to be trusted, so they must not ask to have work done by non-union firms. Political annihilation was to be the price of disobedience.

Country Allowed.Open Golf Championship
Contest—Sharkey Weds.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES
NEW YORK, June 8.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The great American automobile road race for the Vanderbilt trophy will be held this year, Oct. 8, over a course on Long Island. It will start at sunrise. The contestants will be sent away over a course of 100 miles, or more than 300 miles, in 60 seconds apiece. The contest will be open to the world, but only ten men from any one country will be allowed to enter, thus keeping the entry list down to seventy to one hundred. Men of clubs allied to the American Automobile Association in the Americas, and members of clubs in Europe, which are allied with the Automobile Club of France will be eligible to enter.

The race will be held in 1904 and in America necessarily, but after that, it may be held in the country which holds the trophy.

ARRESTED THIRTY TOUTS.

DOOLEY'S WELCOME RAID.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES
NEW YORK, June 8.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Great excitement was created at Gravesend race track this evening when Capt. Dooley of Coney Island precinct arrested thirty professional tipsters, or "touts," who were taken in by the captain in the grand wagon and hustled roughly to the nearest Police Station.

Capt. Dooley has received numerous complaints from patrons at races regarding tipsters bounding from one to the track, and went along himself to see that the raid was carried out successfully.

Capt. Dooley says he believes his side does not put up stop to the names of tipsters boarding race tracks at stations to the race track and trying to persuade passengers that they have inside information on "good things."

OPEN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP.

TRAVIS MAKES POOR START.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.) LONDON, June 8.—By Atlantic Cable. The contest for the open golf championship was started today at Sandwich in blustering weather. His score was 75, and he is 18th which is poor. Travis drove further on during the amateur championship contest, but his putting was inferior. That for Thomas, a professional, started with a score of 75. The score of E. M. Byers, American, was 81.

Sentiment was quite bearish in wheat at Chicago yesterday, and with liberal receipts the market closed weak, with July at 50%@57. Oats were the strongest of the grains and showed only slight loss.

REPUBLICAN ANNIVERSARY.

It will be a notable gathering and an auspicious occasion when the Republican hosts assemble "under the oaks" at Jackson, Mich., on the 6th of July, to celebrate in a fitting manner the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Republican party. The President will be represented by Hon. John Hay, Secretary of State, who will deliver the principal address. Secretary Hay was one of the private secretaries of President Lincoln, and he has been closely identified with the Republican party since its birth. He is therefore especially qualified to speak of its development and progress, and the whole country will be interested in what he has to say on the occasion. There will be other notable speakers, among them Secretary Taft, Speaker Cannon, Senators Allison, Fairbanks, Burrows and Alger, and Dr. James B. Angell, president of Michigan University.

July 6, 1854, a mass convention was held at Jackson, in response to a call signed by opponents of the extension of slavery, to the number of about 10,000. The meeting was presided over by David B. Walbridge. Addresses were made by Zachariah Chandler, who afterward became a stalwart "war horse" of the Republican party, representing his State in the Senate of the United States during and after the war; Austin Blair, who became the Governor of his State, and won enviable distinction as one of the great war Governors; Erastus Hussey, who gained a national reputation by reason of his firm stand for freedom during the Kentucky raids into Cass county; and Lewis Clark, who was said to have been the prototype of Uncle Tom in Mrs. Stowe's great novel.

Resolutions were adopted by the convention pledging resistance to the extension of slavery, demanding the repeal of the fugitive slave law, and proposing a general convention of the free States for the purpose of considering ways and means for resisting the further encroachments of slavery. "We will be known as Republicans," declared the resolutions, "until the contest is ended." Thus the name Republican was given to the party. It is said that the party name, which had not been in use since the early days of the republic, was suggested by Horace Greeley to Joseph Warren, editor of the Detroit Tribune.

News of the action taken by the Michigan convention spread rapidly. The Free Soilers of Wisconsin, in convention at Madison on July 12, 1854, adopted the name of Republican. Conventions of Free Soilers held on the same day in Vermont, Ohio and Illinois also adopted the name, and like action was taken in Massachusetts on July 19. The first national convention of the Republican party was held in Pittsburgh, on Washington's birthday anniversary, in 1856, resulting in the nomination of Fremont and Dayton for President and Vice-President. The party carried eleven States in 1856, and four years later elected Abraham Lincoln to the Presidency.

It is fitting that the semi-centennial of the Republican party should be celebrated on the historic spot where the party had its birth, and the occasion will be certain to attract a large concourse of visitors from all parts of the country. From its inception the Republican party has been a factor of tremendous importance in the history of the nation. It has called to a support many of the ablest men in the country. Its history since 1850 is a large part of the history of the republic, for it has administered the affairs of the government during the greater part of that eventful period.

The Republican party undoubtedly has continued success largely to a fact that it is distinctively a party of progress, and has been such from a beginning of its history down to the present time. While its principalponent has been content with being party of negotiations, to a very great extent, the Republican party has steadfastly advocated positive principles and maintained constructive policies.

Supporters have had the courage of their convictions and the disposition to fight for these convictions with uncompromising tenacity.

The Republican party was never stronger than it is today. It has proved by many years of capable administration which have brought unwonted prosperity to the country, that it is worthy of the people's support and confidence. It will go into the coming national campaign "stripped for battle" and confident of victory.

THE INCONSISTENT GOMPERS.

In another column of this morning's Times will be found an account of some of the practices which prevail in the office of that notorious pretender and infamous labor agitator, Gompers. The article is interesting and the fifth anniversary of the founding of the Republican party. The President will be represented by Hon. John Hay, Secretary of State, who will deliver the principal address. Secretary Hay was one of the private secretaries of President Lincoln, and he has been closely identified with the Republican party since its birth. He is therefore especially qualified to speak of its development and progress, and the whole country will be interested in what he has to say on the occasion. There will be other notable speakers, among them Secretary Taft, Speaker Cannon, Senators Allison, Fairbanks, Burrows and Alger, and Dr. James B. Angell, president of Michigan University.

It is suggested to the Western Federation of Miners that it can save its $5000 by investigating this marked-photograph matter. But the federation's $5000 is perfectly safe—and the federation knows it. The direct perpetrators of Monday's awful deed will probably never be discovered—certainly not by the Western Federation of Miners. Everyone knows who is indirectly and in a measure directly responsible for that assassination—and no reward offer will successfully screen the guilty persons.

There is no record that the Western Federation of Miners repudiated the telegram sent by Anarchist Debs, and its silence in the premises is ample endorsement of the sentiments in that telegram. The federation can never purge itself of the responsibility for the reign of crime in Colorado until it ceases to palliate crime, until it ceases to uphold the crime, until it ceases to remain silent when it receives such telegrams as Debs sent, and until it casts out its agitators, anarchists, Socialists and murderers, and thereby shows that the organization contains a decent element and that that element is supreme.

As for Debs, his telegram, under all the circumstances, is quite sufficient to make him still more infamous than he already is, if that is possible.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says: "The Republican slate candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, Miss Mayhew, the journalistic joker of St. Louis, is already setting busy with this cognomen so rich in potentialities." The Plain Dealer is mistaken. Mr. Whybark has heretofore been a Republican nominee for Congress and for Supreme Judge and the St. Louis newspapers have had such experience with his power that they are now preparing to let him alone.

The Montana Record editorially states that "the Democratic delegates to the National Convention from Missouri have been instructed to cast their votes for Senator Cockrell and to do everything possible to bring about his nomination." The Record must be a mind reader. The Missouri convention will not be held until June 21.

Dr. Washington Gladden says that "the unions should either turn over the authors of the Cripple Creek outrage to the authorities, or disband." Dr. Gladden hits the nail on the head twice—first in assuming that the unions can turn over the authors and second, in suggesting that they disband upon failure to do so.

The Pan-German Congress so far forgot the inherent rights of their war lord as to formally request him to stay at home and attend to his business for at least six months of every year. It's very small of them to go kicking about a little vacation.

While you are all guessing, how would this do: For President, George B. McClellan, Mayor of New York; for Vice-president, Carter Harrison, Mayor of Chicago. Platform: "The superiority of the Majority and the supremacy of sons of fathers?"

If Perdicaris had remained in New Jersey, where he belongs, instead of chasing off to Morocco, he would only have been pestered by mosquitoes. Now the sword of a bandit chief hangs over his head. Some men never know when they have enough.

A large number of the unionist rioters have been deported from the Cripple Creek district. When the last of them has been shipped out of the State, Colorado can then begin anew with some hope of restoring her prosperity.

News dispatches tell us that H. E. Huntington has "absorbed" twenty-three telephone systems in the South, which causes some wonder as to how his personal system survived the shock.

All this sounds very fine and lofty; but the plain intent to deceive the public to the federation's real attitude is obvious. Let it be remembered that Secretary Haywood is one of the men who signed the infamous poster which constituted a flagrant and damnable desecration of the nation's flag; and President Moyer also signed it.

The reelection of Secretary Haywood admits of but one logical deduction. By this act the Western Federation of Miners puts the stamp of its approval upon the past acts of Haywood, including his desecration of the American flag and his part in arousing the union miners to acts of violence and bloodshed in Colorado. Instead of trying to purify the organization by ousting anarchistic and dangerous "leaders," the federation deliberately, and with the echoes of that terrible explosion still ringing in its ears, reflects and thus upholds one of its officers who has been most active in conducting the federation's gory battle in Colorado.

Now that Senator Fairbanks has come out into the open as an ardent Vice-Presidential candidate, Uncle Joe Cannon probably begins to breathe easier.

A Milwaukee man has invented a system of card playing by telephone. He probably wanted to counteract the growing system of telephone sermons.

Bryan's Nebraska platform gives no hope to the reorganizers. It is as hard, unloving and metallic as a silver dollar at any old ratio.

No one who knows the history of the federation in Colorado places the slightest significance upon its offer of $6,000 reward. Ask any sane man who has passed through the Colorado conflict in recent years, and he will tell you that in all probability the Western Federation of Miners could put its hands on the perpetrators of Monday's tragedy. The offering of a reward by the federation is the shallowest kind of a pretense, a screen so thin and flimsy that any thinking person can see through it and detect the guilt that lies behind it.

In the miners' union hall at Victor were found forty photographs of miners whose names were recorded on the photographs. Two of these names were scratched out—the men had been killed in the dynamiting of the Vindicator mine last November. Other names of men who have departed from Cripple Creek were crossed out. Certain other names were "checked." James Cochran, secretary of the union, admits that the photographs were collected and named to show "scabs"—non-union miners. He professes to know nothing more about the photographs.

It is suggested to the Western Federation of Miners that it can save its $5000 by investigating this marked-photograph matter. But the federation's $5000 is perfectly safe—and the federation knows it. The direct perpetrators of Monday's awful deed will probably never be discovered—certainly not by the Western Federation of Miners. Everyone knows who is indirectly and in a measure directly responsible for that assassination—and no reward offer will successfully screen the guilty persons.

Notice that Unionists Can Return

500 Raymond Avenue, June 8.—An official pronouncement has issued by the Association of Master Plumbers of Pasadena. The striking men will return to work at 8 o'clock this morning, or they do not return at all. The eleven plumbing shops of the city reached this morning a meeting held at their rooms yesterday, and it's now up to the men. It has been intimated a time since the inception of the strike that the masters would not be able to have men to take the places of the strikers, and for that reason the masters would not be able to keep their plumbing open shops. While the shops that have come to the city have not been taken as a dare,
it is now up to the masters to break
the strike to terms.The association is now return to work on the

of the strike. The masters have much better terms, but accept them, and the masters have decided to revert to their original agreement. They can do as they please.The strike has been three days, at a loss to the masters of $2335. If they go back now it will be on exactly the terms as prevailed when the strike was called.

said that negotiations had progress for some time, and he had been told that "no such a deal" had been made.He continued, "It is at a figure much higher than what it was reported that it was sold. I have offered the masters $2335, and they have not taken it."No master has negotiated
a definite sum, but I shall continue to make offers."PASADENA is one of the finest

The public appreciation is best attested by the vast throngs of buyers who are in attendance daily. There is no part of Los Angeles city or county that has not profited by this great merchandizing event; and as the garments are so meritorious it is to your best interests to buy all of the undermuslins you may need for the summer, now. We have no competition in any of the so-called undermuslin sales now being held in the city or we sell undermuslins cheaper than other dealers have to pay for the same goods at wholesale.
